

Daniel Jackson

Daniel Jackson joined DMC as the new chief executive officer at Sinai-Grace Hospital. Most recently he served as vice president, administration, with WellStar Health System's Atlanta Medical Center - South, where he previously served as chief administrative officer prior to its acquisition from Tenet. Daniel brings nearly 20 years of valuable healthcare experience to the DMC, having worked in numerous senior leadership roles, including prior roles with Tenet.

Daniel earned a Bachelor of Science in Biology from Morehouse College in Atlanta, and a Master of Science in Public Health Administration from Meharry Medical College in Nashville. Jackson is a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives (FACHE). Jackson currently serves as a member of the Meharry Medical College Advisory Board.

He is highly committed to the community that Sinai-Grace serves and understands the importance of engaging with the community in meaningful and relevant ways. Daniel's focus is on cultivating a culture at Sinai-Grace that makes the hospital an employer of choice which will attract and retain the best talent available in order to provide compassionate, high quality and safe care to the patients they serve.